

Receiver the authority to take such other acts as are necessary to wind up the estate; and 10) granting any other relief related to the wind-up of the estate. As of today's date, no interested party has filed a responsive pleading.

Having fully considered the Motion, the Memorandum, the Declaration of Receiver Claire M. Schenk and the exhibits attached thereto, and being duly advised as to the merits,

THE COURT DOES HEREBY ORDER THAT

1. The Receiver's Motion is granted in its entirety;
2. The Receiver's final report and accounting as set forth in the Memorandum are approved;
3. Fees and costs of the Receiver and the retained professionals from December 1, 2017 through April 30, 2018 are determined to be reasonable and appropriate and are approved in the total amount of $19,944.75 to be distributed as follows: (a) Thompson Coburn LLP ("Thompson Coburn"), $18,918.99, the Receiver's primary counsel; (b) Segue Partners, LLC ("Segue"), $940.76, the Receiver's bookkeeper; and (c) CliftonLarsonAllen LLP ("CLA"), $85.00 the Receiver's accountant, tax preparer, forensics and valuation expert;
4. The Receiver is allowed to establish a post receivership reserve in the amount of $12,500 ("the Reserve") to cover fees and expenses relating to: the finalization of the Receiver's report; coordination of this filing with the FTC; service and communications with potential creditors; provision of such other notices as required; and responses to taxing authorities and others as required. The Receiver is allowed to pay any and all post receivership fees and expenses in a self-executing manner, without further Court Order, upon the consent of the FTC. In addition, the Receiver, at the appropriate time and based upon the Receiver's determination that no further post-receivership fees and expenses remain outstanding, is allowed the authority to transfer any receivership funds remaining in the Reserve to the FTC;

5. Subject to the Reserve and payment of the fees and expenses authorized hereinabove, all funds remaining in the Receivership estate after payment of all administrative expenses, shall be turned over the FTC;

6. The Receiver shall dispose of and/or destroy the hard copy and electronic records of the Receivership Defendants in the Receiver's possession, custody or control, unless within 180 days after entry of this Order, the Receiver has been served with a request by the FTC for possession of said records or with a subpoena by a law enforcement agency for said records and/or hard drives, in which event the Receiver is authorized to turn over the records to the FTC or a law enforcement agency in response to the request or subpoena;

7. The Receiver is authorized to abandon any unadministered assets of the estate;

8. The Receiver is allowed the authority to take such other acts as are necessary to wind up the proceeding; and

9. Upon entry of this order and the making of the payments and performance of the tasks outlined herein,

a) The Receiver, her deputies, agents, employees, members, officers, independent contractors, attorneys, and representatives shall be discharged;

b) The Receiver, her deputies, agents, employees, members, officers, independent contractors, attorneys, and representatives shall be released from all claims and liabilities arising out of and/or pertaining to the receivership, including without limitation, all claims that were or could have been asserted concerning the Receiver's activities, including without limitations the activities reflected in the Memorandum;

c) The Receiver, her deputies, agents, employees, members, officers, independent contractors, attorneys and representatives shall be released from all duties and responsibilities pertaining to the proceeding established in this cause of action; and

d) The Receiver's bond shall be exonerated.

So Ordered this 18th day of May, 2018.

_____
THE HONORABLE HENRY E. AUTREY
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT JUDGE